HARBOR AND ENGLISH CLUB IN THE CITY.—Pursuant to notice a large number of the members of Alexandria English Club met at Walker school building, at Ballston, on Tuesday evening, the 27th inst., at 8 o'clock, to organize a Harbuck and English Club for the city. The meeting was called to order by Mr. George R. Adams.

On motion, Mr. George O. Winder was elected chairman and Mr. A. P. Dugan, secretary.

Some forty names were enrolled for membership, and the following officers elected: President, C. B. Graham; vice-presidents, A. P. Dugan, of Alexandria district; J. H. Johnson, of Jefferson district; George O. Winder, of Washington district; secretary, J. P. Barrett; corresponding secretary, James H. Stevens; treasurer, George H. Hartman.

The following executive committee was appointed: George O. Winder, Harvey Bailey, and J. H. Johnson.

On motion, Messrs. George H. Hartman, J. H. Johnson, Sept. Brown, and the president appointed a committee to make necessary arrangements for procuring and erecting a flag at the entrance.

On motion, the following secretary was directed to publish the Alexandria Gazette with the members of this meeting for publication.

Appointed remarks were made by various members. Enthusiasm and unity prevailed, and the club gave evidence of being a power in the approaching campaign.

On motion, the club adjourned to meet two weeks from that night (August 10), same hour and place.

PROFESSOR EVANS' RECITATION.—Three persons fortunate enough to hear Professor Evans last night at Sceptia Hall enjoyed a rare treat. The entertainment was of the highest order of merit. Each piece on the programme was a gem in itself, and each was rendered with great power. Mr. Evans' interpretation of the varied programme of the evening evoked the admiration of a master of the dramatic art.

Before the first of the recitations Professor Evans, by turning his back for an instant, made a simple change in his coat and hat, which, being supplemented by a change of countenance and attitude, produced a wonderful transformation. In place of the well-dressed professor stood a variable vagabond, unkempt, unshaven—a beggar, shivering with cold. The dog of the vagabond was also brought in, and in a twinkling he was transformed into the author of the entertainment.

The entertainment closed with "Darius Green and His Flying Machine," the rendition of which evoked the house. Professor Evans will probably give a second entertainment before the departure.

DEATH OF J. L. THOMAS, JR.—Mr. J. L. Thomas, Jr., a prominent and highly respected citizen of Baltimore, father of the late John L. Thomas, died at his residence in the former city yesterday, in the 55th year of his age. He was stricken with paralysis on Sunday afternoon last and never recovered from the shock. For half a century Mr. Thomas was a prominent member of the Presbyterian Church, and was a man of deep and earnest convictions, sincere and unshaken in his piety, quiet and modest in his daily walks of life.

He was a dear and devoted friend of Dr. R. J. Beck, and when the celebrated controversy between the new and old schools of the Presbyterian Church took place in 1858, he responded to the side of the new school, and was active in founding a church in Winchester, Va. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock, from the residence of his son-in-law, Geo. H. Page, Esq., Fulton street, near Bayette, Baltimore.

His First Horseback Ride.—Hans Weber, is the police-shipping clerk for the Iron River. He has his various accomplishments, but in the art of horseback riding he is a novice. He rode yesterday for the first time on a horse named "The First." The first ride was a triumph, and Hans, who is in the habit of riding with his back to the wind, mounted, facing the animal. The horse started with a bound and Mr. Weber, of course was thrown to the ground, receiving quite a severe wound, lacerating one of his toes and bruising his elbow, causing him to make up his mind never again to ride with his back to the wind, especially on horses.

POLICE ITEMS.—Jerry Willis and Charles Richards, were before the Mayor this morning for robbing Ella Randolph, of fifteen dollars, in the colored exhibition last night. They were held for further examination.

Ella Randolph and Ann Kelley, two colored females of "Flicker's Division," Washington, are held on suspicion of robbing a man in that city and the police authorities of Washington can be heard from.

Silas Harris, George Thompson and Henry Freeman, all colored, for an assault on William Madell, were fined $5 each. Freeman paid his fine and the other two were sent to the chain gang.

ANOTHER SHARK.—A large shark, a regular hunter, was caught at Glymont on Monday, by some fishermen. The monster came within a few feet of some gentlemen who were in a boat, but was frightened off before he could make it convenient to swallow one or two of them. By the aid of a large net and a surgeon's hook, but failed, which he bit at greedily, the whole sport was hailed ashore and killed, when it was found to measure eight feet six inches in length. This is the second shark captured in the Potomac within the past two weeks. It will be presented to the Smithsonian Institution.

INSTALLATION.—The following officers of Sceptia Lodge, No. 45, I. O. O. F., elected at a previous meeting, were installed last night by Grand John A. Felt: J. O. Graham, N. G.; James Johnson, V. G.; W. W. Sherwood, P. S.; Benoni F. Niles, R. S.; Geo. A. Felt, Treasurer; W. R. Studds, Chaplain; J. W. Campbell, K. S.; N. G. H. Nicholson, L. S.; N. G. E. Padgett, Warder; W. A. Niles, Conductor; F. E. Hestey, J. G.; E. H. Hawkins, O. G.; George Supporters, Geo. Barker and James Cook, R. S. to V. G. J. R. Barker, L. S. to V. G. B. M. Laws.

COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION.—Superintendent Caroe and Feltin held this morning, the competitive examination requested by Senator Murray for the vacant cadetship at the Virginia Military Institute. Superintendent Thornton was unable to attend. There were five candidates, one from Alexandria and two from Fairfax, and, after a careful scrutiny of the papers handed in, William W. Miller, of Fairfax, C. H., aged 17, was declared the successful competitor, having secured 90 per cent. The other candidates declared all three qualified for admission to the Institute.

FUNERAL OF MR. EASTER.—The funeral of Mr. Charles Ewing Easter, whose death was reported in Monday's Gazette, took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence on the Franklin road, a short distance from Ballston, and was attended by a large number of friends, many of whom were weary from the rains reported in a band of misadventure. The remains were placed in a handsome mahogany casket, and were carried to the cemetery, where they were interred in the grave of his wife. Among the pall bearers was Mr. A. G. Uhler, of this city.
